Notes on interior decorating with wood countertops:

This commercial restaurant has a modern design utilizing the warmth of wood. The Walnut Pastore style countertop wraps down the sides to create legs to the bar top. The bar top is finish with Durata® wood countertop finish. The finish is waterproof and flexible so no flaking will occur over time. Durata is a commercial quality finish used in many commercial spaces for restaurant tables and bar tops. It is the best wood countertop finish on the market today and does not require ongoing maintenance. The Grothouse wood surfaces used in this space add warmth and worry free function to this bustling restaurant.
